

6516204858.txt

Dear Sirs:As a subscriber to satellite radio I strongly object to any attempt to restrict the capabilities present in XM's current system. The innovative technologies for the traffic and weather channels on satellite radio greatly exceed those presented by local broadcasting and any attempt to restrict their use would be a great disservice to paying subscribers such as myself. I view such attempts by the NAB and their petition 04-160 as an infringement on my given rights.